Basketball District Tourney No. 75 To Open In Local Gym Next Wednesday

Roscommon, Grayling, Kalkaska and Houghton Lake Vie For Title: Grayling Defending Champs

The opening rounds in the State High School Basketball Tourney will be played next week through out the State with District Tourney No. 75 scheduled to start at 8:00 p. m. next Wednesday in the local high gymnasium.

Vying for the District crown will be the Grayling Vikings, the Roscommon Bucks, the Houghton Lake Bob Cats and the Kalkaska Blazers. At this time, the edge in the tourney must go to the Roscommon Bucks who are tied for first in the Northeastern Michigan Class C Conference. The Houghton Lake Bob Cats, in the same conference, are right behind Roscommon with an 11-3 record to Roscommon's 12-2. Kalkaska, this year, has a much improved team over last year and has a better conference rating. However, cage experts give the Blazers little chance in the four team tourney. The Vikings, although low in their conference standings, still have the stuff to come through with an upset. Conceding not as strong as last year, the green and white have looked very good on a few occasions this season. With the team up for the tourney, Grayling may throw a surprise into the acknowledged strong teams of Roscommon County.

Frank Bond, Grayling High science teacher has been named as tournament manager. Tickets will be handled by Elmer Fenton with Bud Smith as official timer and Bob Bovee, official scorer. Thomas McDonnell and William Klimek both of Alpena have been named by the State Athletic Association to referee the tournament games here. Lewis Stillwagon will handle the public address system, assisted by Whitey Madison as spotter.

There will be one game each night on Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday, March 5, 6 and 8, all starting at 8 p. m. Admission prices have been set at 75c for adults and 50c for students for each of the three games.

County Man Wins Place For Painting

Sam Sherwood of Beaver Creek, who has been studying oil painting under Mrs. Virginia Seitz of Clare for some time, was awarded 10th place in popularity for one of his paintings entered in the Michigan State University exhibition now going on. His picture is entitled "Wyoming Country." There are 500 entries in the exhibition and 147 of them are from the state of Michigan.

MRS. MARY GALLOWAY SUCCEUMS

Mrs. Mary Priscilla Galloway, 70, widow of the late Alfred Galloway, succumbed Friday, February 21, at Mercy Hospital here. DATE SET FOR ALUMNI BANQUET

The officers and directors of the Grayling High School Alumni Association met Wednesday evening at the Alumni room in the new school gym. The greater part of the meeting was devoted to discussion of the 1958 homecoming banquet and dance. The date for the event has been set for May 31st, and will be held at the new gym. Entertainment suggestions were discussed and any ideas graduates may have should be made known to the alumni directors. Committees for the May 31 activities will be announced at the next meeting of the board, March 12th, 1958.

An effort is being made again to obtain the addresses of old grads and any information along this line may be left at the Avallanche office.

Encampments Set For Guard

Field training dates for all but Detroit area units of the 210th AAA Gp have been announced by Maj Gen George C. Moran, The Adjutant General of Michigan.

Currently Michigan National Guard units are scheduled to hold their 1958 field training at three different sites during three different periods.

As in the past, Camp Grayling will be host to the largest contingent of Michigan National Guardsmen. Scheduled to train there 9-23 August are the 48th Inf Div, less the 146th AAA Bn (AW); Hq & Hq Det, Mich NG, of Lansing and Grayling; 107th Army Co (DS), of Pontiac; 130th Army Band, of Detroit; and the 1437th Engr Co (Flat Bridge), of Sault Ste Marie.

Time and place of field training for Hq & Hq Btry, 210th AAA Gp, 227th and 979th AAA Bns (90mm Gun), 180th AAA Det (Opn), and the 375th Ord Det (Det CC) have not been established because the units are in a state of transition from a gun mission to a Nike mission.

Mrs. Adam F. Gierke Succumbs Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bradley announce the marriage of their daughter, Lois J., to John R. Bates, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bates of Coldwater, on February 14th. The ceremony was held at the bride's home in the presence of the immediate families.

The Junior Class of Grayling High school will conduct a house to house sale of light bulbs of all sizes during the first two weeks of March.

As I write this, it is Sunday night, the temperature is still above freezing, and the skiing prospects for Monday night look dim indeed. The kids decided Spring had come and dashed about outside without coats, until Friend Wife caught up with them. To the children, as of today, Mom is just plain STUPID! She just can't tell when it's summer-time! Anyway, as I peek away at the typewriter, Friend wife, ignoring the warm weather, is trying to convince an acquaintance that Life is Not Complete Unless You Ski. And I agree.

All the cold weather we have had recently has caused conversation about how low the temperature really got. It would seem that the longer one sits in Dad Hanson's drinking coffee in the morning, the more recent temperatures one can hear. I know one morning last week within the period of forty-five minutes, I heard the temperature in and around Grayling ranged from ten below zero, on down to 26 below zero, apparently depending on which side of town you live. My thermometer registered a nice middling sixteen below. One fellow who recorded an unusual low reading confessed that he had two thermometers, and they varied a full twelve degrees. I accused him of using the higher reading one for summer and the other for winter. But it all makes for good morning conversation, at a time when the spirit just doesn't demand any more. We ought to have an official weather station here, so that the arguments can be settled once and for all. If what one can hear in Grayling is true, we have the coldest temperatures in the whole darned state, and it galls me just a bit to see a reading of twenty six below, and have the radio announce an "official" low of minus sixteen somewhere in the UP. It would be good publicity for our winter sports. (Note how Jack Pine can always work in the skiing angle.)

There is a letter in the Avallanche this week concerning some courtesies extended by our Chamber of Commerce Manager. To those who wonder "what the Chamber does", it will be interesting reading. (Incidentally, the C of C Manager, Bob Hayes, apparently doesn't ski... Shamel Shamel I can say that now...)

The long-range weather forecast for the next few days is for colder-than-normal temperatures. But yet, I saw a flock of geese apparently heading North. Now where in all the land to the north could a flock of geese find enough water to settle down in? The crows are starting to show up again... another sure sign that spring is on the way. The mail brings letters from trout-fishing friends, while the stores are starting to display spring and summer clothing. And I heard about a Grayling youngster who has paid a nickel down on a lay-away plan bathing suit. Can summer be far? And soon all my new-found fun on skis will just be a pleasant memory. (See, I did it again!)

Had a comment the other day from some of the men at the Winter Sports Park about how court-

Vikings In Final Week of Cage Action Of Regular Schedule

TRADE SHOW CHAIRMEN CHOSEN

Mrs. Don Wood, general chairman of the Woman's Club Trade Show which is to take place April 18 and 19, has announced that her co-chairmen are Mrs. Herbert Wolf, Mrs. Richard DuBois and Mrs. Phil Smith. Advisors are Mrs. Walter Truettner and Mrs. Lester Welch. All sixty members of the Woman's Club will take some part in the work of producing the Trade Show.

CARNIVAL WEEKEND SLIDES SHOWN HERE

Hank Gootie, free lance photographer of Detroit, whose photographs of Grayling's Marjorie Wolff, Miss Michigan Winter Sports Queen of 1958, appeared in the Sunday Detroit News, has treated winter sports fans to other views taken during the carnival weekend. Some 50 color slides were shown at the park warming house last Saturday night. They will be shown again this week on Thursday night. Mr. Gootie was kind enough to leave his slides and projector here for the second showing. He and his family, who have a membership at the Grayling Winter Sports Park, will return in time for the weekend.

Winter Sports Group Tells Appreciation

The Voice of Christian Youth group which has made two yearly trips to the Grayling Winter Sports Park, now wrote following their weekend trip here on February 15 and 16 to tell of the appreciation for the treatment that they received in Grayling.

The following letter was received by Dr. J. F. Cook of Grayling from Edward T. Darling, director of the Voice of Christian Youth: Dear Dr. Cook,

I want also to say that we have never before appreciated help such as Mr. Bob Hayes offers the traveller thru your Chamber of Commerce office. We operate many youth tours such as to New York, Toronto, etc., and powdery do we get the cooperation that Mr. Hayes has offered the past couple of years. His help has much to do with our committee returning to Grayling with the annual snow-train rather than to consider other propositions offered us. I will be writing him to thank him. Sincerely, Edward T. Darling

Held Conference In Grayling Monday On Adult Education

Mt. Pleasant — The Adult Education Association of Michigan is presenting a series of conferences throughout the state for members and others interested in adult education. On Monday, Feb. 24, a conference was held in Grayling to provide an opportunity for these persons to meet and consider questions relevant to the future development of this fast-growing phase of our educational "complex."

Persons from the 27 counties of the upper part of the Lower Peninsula were invited to this conference and many brought exhibit material to display and exchange. Registration was at 9:30 a. m. in the Grayling High School.

Services Held For Mrs. Henrietta Skingley

Services for Mrs. Henrietta Marie Skingley were held Monday, February 24th, at 1 o'clock at the Michelson Memorial church with the Rev. R. C. Puffer officiating. Mrs. Ella Wilcox presided at the organ, and Don Gothro sang "The 23rd Psalm" and "The Lord's Prayer." Interment was in Elmwood Cemetery, with Robert Stephan, James Stephan, William Stephan, Bradley Stephan, Russell Vallad, Marvin Meredith, Robert Skingley and Ernie Rokos serving as pallbearers.

Mrs. Skingley succumbed suddenly at her home in Saginaw on Friday, February 21st, following a heart attack. She had not been ill previously.

She was born March 19, 1900, in the Stephan settlement east of Grayling. Her parents were Henry and Lydia Stephan. She graduated from Grayling High school and later attended Ferris Institute. She was a teacher at the Feldhausen school down river for two years. She was a member of the O.E.S., was affiliated with the Methodist church and a member of the Grayling W.S.C.S.

Mrs. Skingley was married in Grayling June 20, 1918, to Harold Skingley. The couple made their home here for many years. They moved to Gaylord for a few years before their move to Saginaw three years ago. Besides her husband, Harold, their five children survive, they being one son, Walter, of Plymouth, and four daughters, Mrs. Virginia Millikin of Grayling, Mrs. Dorothy Abbott of Lincoln Park, Mrs. Mary Esther Abbott of Caro, and Mrs. Kathryn Traylor of Lake Orion, also two sisters, Mrs. Flora Skingley of Grayling and Mrs. Myrtle Vallad of Kalkaska; four brothers, Theodore, Herbert, Alva and Henry Stephan, all of Grayling; fifteen grandchildren; and her mother, now Mrs. Lydia Bowen.

John Bruun Named To Bank Board

John Bruun of Grayling, former president and cashier of the Grayling State Bank and one of the men behind the founding of the bank 28 years ago was named to the board of directors last week. Mr. Bruun was named to a vacancy on the board at a board of directors meeting. He will fill the post on the board of the late John Hume, bank president who succumbed suddenly here on December 31st of last year.

Chamber Still Moving Towards Set Goals

The Crawford County Chamber of Commerce is still moving towards two goals set prior to the start of a membership drive in January. The financial goal was set at $7,500 for the year. Three quarters of that is now in, $5,675.00.

Twenty-two new members have joined the Chamber this year and the goal of 250 members for the year is now 70 percent complete as 174 members now belong to the county-wide organization. Secretary-manager Robert Hayes has announced. When dues come in from a group of delinquent members, both goals will be reached and probably surpassed, he added.

Grayling Bears Defeat Gaylord Five Handily

The Grayling Bears, the independent basketball team sponsored by Bear Archery, had a very easy time last Saturday night in fashioning a 75 to 35 win over the Glen Electric team of Gaylord. The Bears held an overwhelming 36 to 13 halftime edge.

Big Mary Belski with 23 points paced the Bears' scoring thrust with Richard "Red" Hamilton hitting 17 and Jerry Korhonen 12 for double figures for the winners.

Allan Luckstedt just missed double figures with 9. Hopkins with 13 and Kelly with 6 were high for Gaylord.

Referees in the contest were Bud Smith and Dale Rohde of Grayling. At the present time, the Bears have no other games slated.

Bent upon success in their twin tasks of marshaling the money and manpower needed to keep the American Red Cross "On the Job For You" over a million volunteers throughout America on March 1 will begin the rounds of sidewalk-pounding, step-climbing and doorbell-ringing as part of the organization's 1958 campaign for Members and Funds.

Spearheaded by General Lucius D. Clay as national campaign chairman, the accelerated effort this year will find 50 top-level volunteer assistants from business and civic circles of every state in the union serving as national fund vice chairmen.

At Mantion Tuesday, East Jordan Here In Final Game Friday

The Grayling High Vikings will play the last two regularly scheduled basketball games of the current season this week. They will travel to Mantion Tuesday night for a non-conference game and then come home to entertain the collar-dwelling East Jordan Red Devils on Friday night. In their first meeting at East Jordan on January 24, the Vikings had little trouble in defeating East Jordan 40 to 31. On the other hand, Mantion tripped up the Vikings here on January 21st by a 60 to 47 count.

Last Friday, the Vikings traveled to Harbor Springs and really shook up the Rams with a full court press during the early stages of the game. At one time Grayling owned a 10 to 1 lead. The Rams' coach Chuck Paige after calling three time outs during the first period got his charges calmed down and they eventually took the first quarter by a 14 to 12 score. A bad second quarter doomed the surprising Vikings in the game for Grayling.

The Vikings scored 22 to 9 with the Rams owning a 36 to 21 halftime bulge. Grayling came back strong in the third quarter to outscore the hosts 15 to 7 to leave the score 43 to 36 as the final eight minutes of action got underway. The Rams outscored the Vikings in the final period by a 16 to 12 margin.

Francis Cross and Don Roberts with 14 points each, led the Viking scoring thrust with Roger Hatfield also in the double figures with 12. Jack Hull added 5, Oscar Horning 2 and Wayne Winston 1. Garver with 22 and Clarke with 18 were high for Harbor Springs.

The little Vikings came up with a 51 to 30 win and fifteen players were in the game for Grayling. The Vikings reserved took a 13 to 8 lead at the end of the first canto and pushed on to a 30 to 16 halftime lead. In the third quarter, they outscored the little Rams by 16 to 4 with the Harbor reserves having the best of the final period 8 to 5.

Dave Wyman with 20 points paced the little Vikings to the win. Gary Springs and Jim Sorenson added 6 each. Don Leslie 5, Curt Smith and Bill Heath 4 each. Dick MacLeod 3, Jan Thayer 2 and Marshall Atkinson 1. Others in the game who failed to dent the scoring column were: Ray Halstead, Mike Roberts, Mike Lovely, Ted Horning, Bernard Bentley and Mike Goodrich. Meeker and Burns with 10 each were tops for Harbor.

In other conference action Friday night, the Hancock Ironmen downed the Pellston Hornets to continue their hold on third place and the Boyne City Ramblers wrapped up the conference championship by downing the Gaylord Blue Devils 69 to 50. East Jordan continued in the cellar still without a victory in loop play as they bowed to the Charlevoix Red Raiders 56 to 46.

Priced Out Of The Market . . .

Sixteen billion, four hundred million dollars of the administration's $73.9 billion budget for fiscal 1959 is of "benefits" of various kinds. A mere 2.5 billion is budgeted for general government. If there is to be any significant economizing it will have to come out of this $64 billion of "benefits". The big rub is that once benefits are granted they apparently can never be cut back substantially. Big government is a one-way street because more and more people have an economic stake in keeping it big.

A classic example is the Tennessee Valley Authority, a wholly owned government corporation created in 1933 primarily to control floods and improve the navigability of the Tennessee River. The taxpayer's investment in TVA now stands at better than $2 billion. By 1962 the total investment is expected to reach $3.6 billion of which $3 billion, or 80 per cent will be in the commercial electric power business. Industries and businesses, homes and farms in the TVA region are now geared to tax-exempt, tax-subsidized TVA power. They have a direct stake in the perpetuation of this particular phase of big government which serves privileged customers at the expense of all taxpayers — what amounts to a vested interest. Proposals are now before Congress which would authorize TVA to finance itself without congressional appropriations or approval. If such proposals are adopted, TVA will come of age. It will be able to extend its tax-exempt activities at will, overrunning and absorbing any taxpaying electric company in its path. Ultimately it may supply other services or commodities "at cost".

The Tennessee Valley Authority is a national problem. It reveals how little governments become big governments, which ultimately destroy private ownership of property and political liberty — and how this growth goes on almost unnoticed by the public-at large.

The issue posed by TVA is not who shall furnish the country electricity, but what kind of government we wish to have. Representative government is not compatible with a centralized bureaucracy in which millions of people have a stake in the "benefits" which that bureaucracy doles out.

A Vested Interest . . .

A leading newspaper recently carried two important stories side by side on the front page. One was headlined: "Labor to seek higher wages, shorter week." The other headline read: "November jobless highest since 1949."

This puts one in mind of the irresistible force and the immovable object.

Labor can press for higher wages and shorter work weeks, and very likely it can get them. But labor can't make people buy the goods and services that keep the labor force employed.

A worker, like a product, can be priced out of the market. There is plenty of evidence that this is beginning to happen now.

The second of the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps gala nights at Spike's was largely attended and everyone says they had a good time. Alfred Hanson, Spike MacNeven and Puss Hoelsi won the three geese as door prizes. Grayling Cubs, local entrants in the independent basketball tournament held at Roscommon last week, made a very enviable record for themselves there. Thrilled by the fast, clean games played by the team each night, the large crowd that attended agreed that the Cubs played the outstanding games of this tourney. After defeating the Grayling Lumberjacks in the first game of the tournament by seven points the Cubs nosed out the fighting Wildcat aggregation from Mt. Pleasant by one point, 24-23. In a nip and tuck game Saturday that thrilled the crowd, the Cubs held their own against the team composed of the stars of several of Bay City's best teams. The Cubs were but one point behind as the game ended. Immediately following this game, Houghton Lake forced the Cubs to play in the only overtime game of the tournament, when they made 25 points while the Cubs were making the same. However in the overtime the final score was 28-27 for the Cubs. The third place prize given the Cubs was the basketball used the three nights of the tournament. Bay City Independents carried off the tournament honors by defeating the Roscommon Ramblers.

Grayling High wound up its regular basketball schedule for 1934-35 with a smashing defeat for West Branch. The score was 28-11, and marked the thirteenth win in sixteen interscholastic contests for the Big Greens. West Branch reserves came from behind to grab a 14 to 11 victory for themselves, Grayling's Green Wave swept over Roscommon High school's struggling, powerless bas-kettball team last Tuesday and deluged them beneath a 30-12 decision. The reserves won 11-5 to make it complete.

Monday we experienced one of the heaviest snowfalls of the winter when traffic was blocked on the side streets, with even difficulty in getting through the main traveled thoroughfares. And then to make it seem like a real northern winter the mercury went to 15 below Tuesday night and 29 below Wednesday night. Today is just like a spring day.

Alpena Community College Accredited

Alpena Community College is now officially accredited. Notice of the accreditation by the Michigan Commission on College Accreditation was received by Dr. R. H. Wilson, Superintendent of Schools, from Dr. John W. Hollenbach, chairman of the commission, in a letter received Wednesday, January 29th.

The Commission's decision was based on the report of a committee which visited the college on Friday, December 6. Members of the committee were Monsignor Arthur P. Bukowski, President, Aquinas College, chairman; Dr. William J. McKeefery, Dean of the College, Alpena College; Dr. Walter E. Sindlinger, Assistant Professor of Education, University of Michigan; Dr. James McCann, Assistant Dean, Henry Ford Community College; and Dr. Egbert Isbell, Professor, Social Studies, Eastern Michigan College.

Prior to the official visit, the committee had studied reports on the operation of the college prepared by the administration and the faculty.

Monsignor Bukowski made the report to the commission December 18. The commission had three choices, namely, no accreditation, accreditation for a one-year period, or accreditation for a two-year period. The maximum accreditation extended on an original application is for a two-year period. Alpena Community College received the maximum accreditation for two years.

Accreditation is never extended to a college when it is first organized. The college must exist and justify itself for a number of years before accreditation will be considered. "Maximum accreditation of Alpena Community College at this time," states Dr. Wilson, "is clear indication of the success of the college during its five years of existence. I personally congratulate Stanley E. Van Lare, Director, the faculty, and the student body on this outstanding achievement."

Since the college opened its doors in 1952, transfer of credits to four-year institutions has been by special arrangement with these institutions on an individual basis. No major problems have arisen in this connection. Follow-up studies of Alpena Community College students as reported to the committee indicate that graduates are succeeding in the four-year institutions to which they have transferred.

The Commission report commented favorably on the college in many areas and also suggested areas for improvement. One of the primary functions of accreditation is improvement of the institutions visited. The commission made reference to the fact Alpena Community College, in addition to offering two years of college work in professional fields, offers a terminal course in business education, two years of general education, and a two-year terminal industrial-vocational-technical program, and offered suggestions for the strengthening of the terminal programs.

The Michigan Commission on College Accreditation represents all of the institutions of higher learning in Michigan. It has been the experience of Alpena Community College that out-of-state higher educational institutions follow the same policy as the major Michigan universities regarding acceptance of transfer credits. Since all of the higher institutions in Michigan, through the commission, have now accredited Alpena Community College, acceptance of credits by out-of-state institutions will be routine.

Students are enrolled at Alpena from all of the eleven northeastern Michigan counties which the college serves. Attending from Crawford County are Richard Hamilton, David Lowe and Robert Strong. The college is moving into a new campus and building next fall which is now under construction along the banks of the Thunder Bay River on the north side of Alpena.

vide needed funds or communications when emergencies arise. $14 Million on Blood

The Red Cross, he continued, spends another $14,000,000 annually to pay the costs of its Blood Program which provides life-saving whole blood and blood products for the ill and injured in hospitals.

Almost $9 million, he said, will be required to provide the people of this country with health and safety services, and to continue the school activities of 22 million members of the American Junior Red Cross.

Another large portion of the Red Cross budget, he explained, goes for emergency relief and long-term rehabilitation aid to disaster-stricken families. In the past two years, when the country was hit by an unprecedented series of floods, tornadoes and hurricanes, the Red Cross spent about $51,000,000 for this purpose, completely exhausting all disaster reserves and cutting deeply into the organization's general funds.

In an effort to re-establish the ability of the Red Cross to meet disaster emergencies, the organization's Board of Governors recently increased the disaster budget for 1958-59 to $10 million and added another $2 million to begin replenishing the disaster reserve funds.

Need $95 Million
Mr. Harriman said this increase brings to $95 million the amount the Red Cross must raise to carry on its services for the American people in the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1958.

He stated the Red Cross was going to the American people this year with the story of expanded and improved services, explaining the financial situation and asking them to help the Red Cross help their neighbors by contributing even more generously to the 1958 fund campaign.

"Helping people in need is our job. We have done this job and will strive to continue it, carrying on the full range of Red Cross services while making every possible effort to live within our budgets," Mr. Harriman said adding.

"While we all can be proud of the way Americans have given so much to help their neighbors in need and while the Red Cross can be proud of its record, there is no possibility of standing still.

"A growing population — some three million each year — mushrooming communities and increasing numbers of young Americans putting on uniforms to serve their country at home and abroad all point to a greater demand for Red Cross services.

"We in Red Cross must keep pace with the tempo of the times — we must grow along with our nation if we are to keep up with this increased demand.

"We have the dynamic will to grow and to serve the American people better, but we also need a dynamic increase in volunteer strength and financial support.

"We are confident the American people will help us achieve success in our 1958 campaign for members and funds so that we can continue 'On the Job — For You.'

SUN LIFE OF CANADA PAYS $34 MILLION IN POLICYHOLDER DIVIDENDS; U. S. SALES UP

Company sells total $917 million new life insurance in '57; $734 billion life insurance now in force; $155 million paid to policyholders in 1957.

Higher policyholder dividend payments and a new sales record for the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada are among the highlights of the year announced by George W. Bourke, President in his review of the Company's business for 1957.

During 1958, Sun Life will pay out $34 million in dividends to policyholders, an increase of $24 million over the amount paid out in 1957. New life insurance sold in 1957 amounted to $917 million, largest amount ever sold by any Canadian company in one year and an increase of $63 million over the old record set just a year ago. A substantial proportion of the new business originated in the United States, where Sun Life has 36% of its insurance in force. Included in the new business total was $243 million of group life insurance. Sun Life's insurance in force now exceeds $7,749,000,000, more than twice the amount in force ten years ago. Life insurance and annuity business combined is now the equivalent of $10,150,000,000 of life insurance.

BENEFIT PAYMENTS
The Report also reveals that $155 million in benefits was paid out to policyholders and beneficiaries in 1957. Of the total $49 million was paid to beneficiaries of deceased policyholders, representing a substantial contribution to family welfare. Living policyholders and annuitants received $106 million. Payments to policyholders and beneficiaries since the first Sun Life policy was issued in 1871 have now reached $3,295,000,000.

Mr. Bourke referred to the current level of death rates in the United States and Canada. Almost 60% of Sun Life death claims incurred during 1957 were due to disorders of the heart and circulatory systems. The proportion of claims due to cancer — 19% of the total — represented the second major cause of death. There is an obvious need for extensive medical research and the Sun Life is continuing to make contributions for this important study, he said.

"I believe that the better informed people become as to the benefits of life insurance," Mr. Bourke said, "the more insurance they will buy and the more they will insist on programs carefully designed to cover their fundamental insurance needs. These needs are still so far from full satisfaction that we can look forward with every confidence to the continued growth and prosperity of our business."

A copy of Sun Life's complete 1957 Annual Report, including the President's review of the year, is being sent to each policyholder, or may be obtained from

AMVETS Offer College Scholarship To Seniors

Four-year college scholarships ranging in value from $200 to $2,000 are available from AMVETS to high-school seniors whose fathers are totally disabled as a result of their military service in World War II or Korea—or who served in World War II or Korea and are now deceased.

In March, a competitive college aptitude examination will be given in all high schools where there are eligible candidates for the scholarships.

The winners will be selected on the basis of financial need, high school records and results of the March examination. The amount of each scholarship will be based on the status of the winner's father, with the largest ($2,000) grants awarded to students whose fathers are totally disabled.

The 1958 scholarship program marks the seventh consecutive year that AMVETS have awarded grants to children of World War II and Korean Conflict veterans.

HOW MUCH AUTO INSURANCE IS ENOUGH?

Of all the kinds of insurance you buy for your car — collision, comprehensive, fire and theft, medical payments, etc. — bodily injury and property liability policies are the most important, according to the editors of Changing Times, the Kiplinger Magazine. In a copyrighted article appearing in the February issue, the editors declare that the hazard these liability policies protect against is by far the most serious.

Perhaps you could survive the loss of a $3,000 car, even though it would be a heavy blow. But one careless second, one unexpected mechanical failure could lead to a $50,000 damage suit and financial ruin, the editors go on to say.

In two states, Massachusetts and New York you can't register a car unless you have liability insurance. Most other states require that any driver involved in an accident must either produce a liability policy or post a large sum of money or property. Thus the average car owner is in effect required to carry it, even though he cannot technically become a law violator until he is in an accident.

How much should you have? A $5,000-$10,000 policy, for instance, would protect you up to $5,000 for injury to any one person and up to $10,000 for any one accident. Either a 5-10 (as these policies are described), or a 10-20 with $5,000 property-damage protection will satisfy legal requirements in most places. But say the editors, 5-10 is not enough, and 10-20 is skimpy. Any average driver should carry at least 25-50, if he can possibly swing the premium and 50-100 wouldn't be out of line. People of even modest means should consider going higher than that, claim the editors.

Once juries awarded $5,000 or $10,000 for bodily injuries. Nowadays verdicts of $25,000 or $50,000 are not uncommon, and awards have run as high as $100,000 or more.

Fortunately, the additional protection is not expensive. The big amount comes in the basic premium: pushing the limits of liability up a notch costs relatively little. For instance, rates for this kind of insurance in one locality increase only 21 per cent from 10-20 to 50-100, but the increase in protection is a whopping 400 per cent.

Don't compromise on liability protection in order to carry physical-damage protection or extra endorsements; warn the editors. Adequate liability insurance always comes first.

each speaker. Data from the Report of President Eisenhower's Committee on Education Beyond the High School was used as a basis for these discussions.

The specific needs of adult education in Michigan and what organized groups should be doing about them was also discussed. A. T. Rolph, assistant director of Field Services, Central Michigan College, was chairman of the district conference and presided at the business meeting. He stressed that persons need not be a member of an organized adult education group to attend the conferences. An interest in the needs and advancement of adult education is the only requirement.

The meeting was held at the Lone Pine Inn. Mr. Rolph introduced A. J. Dollo of Ferris Institute, who presided over the morning session.

Main speaker of the day was Mr. Jack McLanahan, President of A. E. A., Director of Religious Education at Central Methodist Church of Detroit. In his talk he referred to the San Diego conference last fall as having set off five explosions, which he listed, going on to say that the problem now was the rate of "fall-out" from these explosions and how it would affect adult education. He said that the success of adult education depends entirely on the "climate of curiosity of the individuals and community." His prediction for the future was that adult education will advance much faster in proportion to that in schools and colleges, that some kinds of adult education will become compulsory, that it will achieve social status, and that eventually there will be buildings established for adult education use only.

H. J. Ponitz of the Department of Public Instruction spoke on financing adult education. He mentioned that the average adult throughout the United States has a 9.2 education rating, or 2 months beyond the ninth grade, while Michigan's average is 9.85, 85% of high-school-age persons in Michigan are in high school, while the national average is only 75%. He suggested that 3% of the cost of elementary education should finance adult education, of which 1/4 should come from the state, 1/4 from the county, and 1/4 from the city.

Jealous and well-behaved were the youngsters from Camp Pugsley. In fact, it was said that as a general rule, the kids seemed to be have better than some of the Grayling lads on Thursday nights. There must be some sort of moral there, but I hate to be the one to point it out. (Camp Pugsley boys were SKINNY at the Park)

All on my own, I am going to make a plea for Bob Strong and the Avalanches. It costs a lot of money to print a paper... far, far more than any one person would care to pay if the actual cost were charged the customer. So news papers get the most of their income and costs from the advertisers. The same is true either in Detroit or Grayling. And this time of the year it is particularly rough in Grayling, where there is annually a tremendous drop in advertising. The Avalanche is then printed and sold at a loss, believe it or not. Which is pretty darned charitable, I would say. Anyway, it behooves all of us to support those Avalanche advertisers who do display. Most places have sale items, and all advertising is informative in one way or another.

Cultivating a habit of reading ads can be very rewarding. (For instance, various establishments in Grayling are having a sale on SKINNY equipment.) If you don't like to read ads, place one of your own, and you can spend hours admiring how well your name looks in print.

In closing, I suppose I might better mention something about skiing, lost my readers think I have lost interest. Got into a conversation the other day with a couple of High School lads, and in some weird way, the question of skiing versus Heaven came up.

One of the boys told me that I couldn't get to Heaven on skis... it was all uphill. The other boy, who hadn't said too much of anything up to this point, ended it all with, "Oh, Jack would take the towel Amen!"

Frederic Eagles-Lose To Ellsworth Friday

The Frederic Eagles dropped another Snowland D. Conference game at Ellsworth last Friday night when the host team ran up a 70 to 42 score. Ellsworth started out with a 16 to 12 first quarter and outscored Frederic in every period.

Paul Rolfe with 18 was the high man for Frederic with Jack Smith also in the double digits with 12. Bill Johnson added 5, Maurice Alma 4 and Steve Olson 3. Goeman with 17 was high for Ellsworth.

In the preliminary game, the Little Eagles were defeated by the close score of 41 to 35. The Frederic reserves started in high gear as they went on to a 19 to 14 halftime edge. The Ellsworth reserves roared back with third and fourth quarter scores of 15 and 12 while holding the Little Eagles to 8 points in each period.

Yellow with 12 was high for the winners while Jerry Gabriel with 15 was high Frederic. Frank Weaver hit 10 for the Little Eagles with Fred Turner and Dan Newberry adding 4 each and Bob Midkiff a field goal.

The Eagles windup their regular season when they meet the Albion quintet in the Frederic gym this Friday night. Next week, the Eagles will be in the Class D district tourney at Gaylord. Entered in the six team bracket besides Frederic are Gaylord St. Mary's, Belaire, Albion, Johannesburg and Vanderbilt. The three strong fives are expected to be Gaylord St. Mary's, Johannesburg and Belaire with Frederic, Albion and Vanderbilt considered the three weaker quintets. There will be two games Tuesday night, two more Thursday night and the championship contest on Saturday night. Defending champions are the Gaylord St. Mary's Snowbirds.

What Attracts The Tourist

Editor's Note — This is the third in a series of stories as a followup of a talk given by Howard Somers of field service, Central Michigan College to the Grayling Business and Professional Association. In this portion of his presentation, he was pointing out the various things that attract the tourist to a particular community.

NATURAL ATTRACTIONS:

1. An attractive or different climate.
2. Lakes or rivers.
3. Seashore.
4. Waterfalls.
5. Islands.
6. Hills, mountains or valleys.
7. Forests or woods.
8. Interesting geology formations.

One community may not have hot springs or geysers, but maybe it has such simple natural attractions as wild flowers and wildlife, a beautiful spring or pond, or attractive hiking trails. Tourists will come for miles to see an old tree, a swamp, cliff, canyon, or a cave. The natural appeal of such attractions is enhanced if they are attractively and imaginatively named.

One community in Virginia refers to its rock structure as natural chimneys — Tourists perk up when geological formations are called faces, when a narrow valley becomes a "pass", when rocks become "painted" — or when a cliff is called "devils leap."

MANMADE ATTRACTIONS. Communities have developed successfully the fact that tourists will come to see practically anything that is made interesting or has an historical background.

Battle sites, Burial grounds, Old forts or barracks, Pioneer churches, An old mill, Old plows or farm implements, Indian and outdoor museums, Indian remains, Ghost towns, Historic sites or shrines, Old homes, Old canals or abandoned canals, Old bridges.

Old trading posts, Old lumber camps, A dam, A modern factory, A power plant, Flowers and gardens, National, State and County parks, Forest preserves, Game farms, Fish hatcheries.

Most man made attractions need some facelifting, window-dressing or dramatizing treatment if they are to bring tourists to the community. They must also be identified that tourists understand what they are seeing, well promoted, and made further accessible perhaps by means of a-

$7100 FOR EVERY FAMILY BY 1975 IS CED'S PREDICTION OF U.S. GROWTH

High Incomes Can Be Achieved Only by Wise Handling of Major Economic Issues, Committee Warns

WASHINGTON—By 1975, the average income of American families, after payment of all taxes, should be at least $7,100, as compared with a present average disposable income of $5,300 per family, the Committee for Economic Development predicted.

"Achievement of this high average income is not an imagined utopia, it is a practical goal for practical men," CED's research and policy Committee declared in releasing the results of a study by a subcommittee of businessmen and economists headed by Harry Scherman, chairman of the board of the Book-of-the-Month Club, Inc., of New York.

Entitled "Economic Growth in the United States—Its Past and Future," the statement called for "unending vigilance" by both individuals and government to assure that the most is made of the nation's growth-producing potentials. It stressed improvement of public education, continuous investment in enterprise, increased private savings, mobility of both labor and capital, efficient management of business and of government, and rising foreign trade as among the essentials for growth.

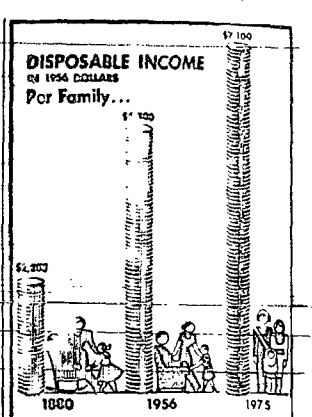

"Only if we manage our economic affairs with intelligence can we expect such a 'good life' on the material side, shared among the entire population," the statement asserted. Our growth will depend mainly, it stressed, "on millions of daily private decisions."

"The initiative and wisdom shown in the conduct of every business enterprise, large or small, and in the actions of every individual in pursuit of his welfare, will add up to the grand result and be the principal determinant of the outcome," the report declared.

Pointing out that future economic growth also will be affected "to a very large extent by the policies and activities of government," the Committee declared "we must be more concerned than ever about two controlling matters: first, the need of attracting competent individuals into government service; and second, to broaden and clarify public understanding of governmental matters."

Continued growth is the more important today, the statement said, because of competition by the Communist bloc.
